

FAMILY DAY WITH THE BRAVES

Georgia PTA and the Atlanta Braves are teaming up once again to celebrate Family Day on Saturday, September 11, 2010 for a 4:00 PM ballgame against the St. Louis Cardinals. Tickets are $8.00 and parking passes are $10.00.

Special events for your family to be involved in on this day are:

- Pre-game tailgating party in the Blue Parking lot. Purchase a Blue Parking pass in advance, bring your food and look for the PTA banner to tailgate with other PTA groups.
- All participating schools will be involved in the pre-game parade on Turner Field. Line up starts at 2:30PM. Bring your school banners, wear your school colors. REPRESENT your school.
- One family will be selected to stay on the field to participate in Braves batting practice.
- One individual will be selected to walk out with Bobby Cox to present team lineup card to umpire.
- Free giveaways all day during the game.
- FREE country concert by Montgomery Gentry at the conclusion of the ball game.
